County Board Vice-Chair Speaks at October GCA Meeting

By Brandon Hemel

Arlington County Board Vice-Chair Christian Dorsey's presentation at the October 2022 GCA meeting touched upon many topics of concern for Glencarlyn and Arlington County.

Along with a lengthy discussion on the Arlington County Missing Middle Study, Dorsey touched on other items of concern for the county board. The county is looking to change building and zoning ordinances to allow for different use types in commercially zoned properties to remedy the shift in proportion of real estate tax burden on residential properties as commercial vacancies remain high post pandemic. The board is committed to continued reduction in greenhouse gases and climate change issues in its partnership with the Washington DC region council governments.

Additionally, Dorsey when questioned by an attendee about the increased usage of rental scooters and electric bikes within Arlington and the 9-abandoned scooters and devices

School Board Chair Goldstein to Speak at Nov 7th Meeting, 7:30 pm

School Board Chairman Reid Goldstein joins us at the Monday Nov. 7th GCA Meeting. Reid will share his vision for the school year ahead. He looks forward to answering all our questions about what is going on in Arlington Schools. At the July 1st organizational meeting, Chairman Goldstein said the School Board knows its challenges and wants to collaborate with everyone in the community. Reid has lived in Arlington for over 30 years. He has served on the School Board since 2016. We will meet at Carlin Hall at 7:30 pm.

President's Corner

If not YOU, then WHO?

By Julie Lee, GCA President

I know I sound like a broken record. No, not about missing middle. Rather, about contributing to our community. It really does take a village to keep all of the activities of your Glencarlyn Civic Association running smoothly. And, more importantly, to help us grow.

Some activities take more time than others. Some responsibilities take just a few minutes each month. If you wish to start by volunteering for one event, that is wonderful. The important thing is to start making a commitment.

I was thrilled to receive responses when I reached out for new block captains to deliver the Village View. We are still looking for a block captain for Manchester Square. It is wonderful to read articles in our monthly newsletter contributed by new writers.

GCA needs help soliciting advertisers for our Village View. Our advertisers help defray publishing costs, which have risen quite a bit lately. They are often local, small businesses which we want to support.

Perhaps you are willing to put out signs on your block or your street announcing meetings and events? Are you willing to 'set up' or 'put back' Carlin Hall before and after our monthly GCA meetings? This now requires a few more people. With the new heavier pre-school tables, I can no longer do this on my own.

We are looking for alternate delegates to represent Glencarlyn on the Arlington County Civic Federation, an organization which provides a forum for civic groups to discuss, debate, inform, advocate and provide oversight on important community issues, on a non-partisan basis. The CivFed meets once a month. This is a wonderful opportunity to engage with other civic associations and organizations.

We have the opportunity to hold more community events, we have the locations to hold them- Carlin Hall, the Park Pavilion, the Library- and we have some funding. What we need are leaders willing to take charge and organize. We also need your fresh ideas. Our VP Courtney Holmes was so very creative during covid, developing non-contact, outdoor activities like the sidewalk chalk art and Spring door décor competition. And how fun was the Safari Scavenger Hunt, which had us searching for "wild" stuffed animals hidden in yards around the neighborhood?! I am sure that many of you have some great suggestions to get us out and meeting our neighbors. Ideas include picking up dinner from the "Friday Food Truck" and gathering in Carlin Hall, or having a meet and greet, with snacks and beverage, in the Library Garden.

Glencarlyn has many new neighbors. We have an opportunity to enhance our collective community experience. If you are interested in helping, have ideas, or questions, please contact me. Glencarlyn is an incredible place to live. If each of us gives just a little, we can make it even better. If not you, then who will do the work?

Glencarlyn Luminaria and Holiday Celebration Set for Saturday, Dec. 10

By Julie Lee

WE look forward to the annual Glencarlyn Luminaria and Holiday Party is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 10. (RAINDATE Dec 17) Luminaria packs can be purchased at Carlin Hall, 5711 4th Street S., between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Dec.10 (NOTE the shorter time) . Each 10 candle Luminaria pack, which includes tea candles, white paper bags and sand, costs $7, and will light the front-age of an average 50-60ft lot. You can also pay your dues. This is a fundraiser for GCA.

As it begins to get dark and the luminaria are lit, everyone is invited to walk the neighborhood, admire the Luminaria and come to the Holiday Party at the Glencarlyn Library parking lot on Kensington St., between 3rd and 4th. Even if you won't be placing luminaria in front of your home, join in the neighborhood stroll. It is truly a beautiful sight! Everything culminates with friendship and refreshments at the Party, 6- 7:30 pm. There will be cookies, warm beverages (cocoa, spiced cider) and marshmallows for roasting. Santa will arrive around 6:30 pm with a little something for the youngsters. This is a wonderful family activity and a great opportunity to greet your neighbors.

RAINDATE: THIS YEAR WE HAVE SCHEDULED the RAIN DATE for SAT, DEC 17.

Volunteers Needed for Dec 10th Luminaria Sales and Holiday Party

Volunteers are needed to make our Dec. 10 Glencarlyn Luminaria and Holiday Party a success. Eighteen volunteers are needed for sales between 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 pm at Carlin Hall. Four or five volunteers are needed to work each shift of approximately 1 1/4 hours. We need some volunteers to work outside bagging sand. We need 6 dozen cookies for the Holiday Party. You can drop them off at Carlin Hall during Luminaria sales or bring them to the Party. Around twenty volunteers are needed for the Holiday Party, beginning with 10 people for set-up at 5:00 p.m. After our encounter with the crows last year, we are going to hold off setting out and lighting luminaria around the Library and Carlin Hall until 5:00pm!!

Also, because we have scheduled a rain date for Sat. Dec 17, we need volunteers to sign up for the rain date as well. If you can work either day, sign up for both, if you can only help on one day, sign up for that day. Of course, you will only have to work one day. Volunteers can sign up to help for both the scheduled day (10th) and the rain date (17th) by using the Sign-up Genius at:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/409084BAEAC2DA2FE3-gcaluminaria>

or by contacting Julie Lee at jfblee@aol.com or 808-384-4954.

Glencarlyn Library Always Free, Always Open

The Glencarlyn Branch is ending 2022 and beginning 2023 with an array of exciting programs and services for the community. Staff is resuming popular pre-pandemic programs like a fiber arts program for knitters and crocheters on Monday evenings at 6pm. We're also offering a new English language learning conversation group on Wednesdays at 11am. And in addition to crafts and storytimes for kids, we now have free coffee and hot cocoa available for people to sip on while they browse or work. We're glad to be back and hope you come by to see us soon!

Glencarlyn's Neighborhood Survey on Missing Middle

By Julie Lee

Thanks to all who took time to complete the neighborhood survey on Missing Middle upzoning. 128 households responded online, a very good response rate. 76.6% of the respondents would like to see Glencarlyn remain a community of single-family homes, 10.2% support duplexes and tri-plexes. A majority think the County should do further evaluation of the potential impacts on traffic, on-street parking, school population and tree canopy. Over 90% believe missing middle housing would increase on-street parking and 72.4% felt the onsite parking ratio should remain at 1 car per unit. Approximately 80% are concerned about neighborhood traffic and the loss of tree canopy.

What is most telling from this survey is revealed in the comments. Glencarlyn residents care deeply about, and truly love, their park and natural surroundings. They appreciate our quiet, somewhat secluded neighborhood, our library and garden and community center, caring neighbors and our community spirit.

For complete results go to: https://glencarlyn.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/10/GCA_MissingMiddle_Survey_Results.pdf

Or go to the Glencarlyn website. The results have been forwarded to the County Board.

Home, Vehicle and Personal Security at the Dec 5 GCA Meeting, 7:30 pm

By Julie Lee

Home, vehicle, and personal security will be the topic at the Dec. 5th GCA meeting at Carlin Hall. ACPD Corporal Amanda Brown will share ways we can protect ourselves and our possessions. This should be especially helpful as the holidays approach.

Street Trees and Replacement Plants for 4th St. S. Project

Street trees and replacement plants will be installed in the fall planting season, most likely during November. For any questions, please contact Jill at jyutan@arlingtonva.us

Invasive Treatment Continues on Kenmore Wooded Area Project

The draft project scope is to improve the wooded area at the west end of the Kenmore Middle School property (from the dead end to the edge of the ball field), as well as the S. Manchester St. entrance and frontage, the 2nd St. S. dead end, and the east side of S. Manchester St.

IPC, the invasive control contractor hired by Arlington County, completed the fall 2022 course of treatment of the wooded area in October. Remaining treatments are scheduled for summer and fall of 2023, and summer of 2024. Signs are posted when the treatments occur and the area being treated is safe to enter.

Wetland Studies and Solutions, a consulting firm hired by the county, has completed a tree survey which includes a plan and a spreadsheet with tree inventory data. The plan is to evaluate the existing trees for removal, pruning or keeping once the treatments are complete.

The rest of the project is contingent on the availability of engineering staff to design the remaining items in the draft plan. An engineer on the team recently left the county and the impact on the project's schedule is not yet known.

Once the design information is available, there will be refinement of the draft plan, as was anticipated when the project was approved and funded. Some items that GCA proposed may need to go into a future AN project or be pursued by collaboration between APS and GCA. As the plan is refined, more information will be provided about the scope of work.

For a detailed description of the proposed project, including project history and photos, go to Glencarlyn.org under the NC Activities tab and scroll down to this header: Proposed Project for Kenmore Wooded Area. along our streets and parks. Dorsey states the county needs to revisit the permitting process for these companies. While he sees the usage of scooters/e-bikes as a good option for mobility services, Dorsey feels the county has fallen short on the education for scooter and e-bike usage, and the board has taken too much of a Laissez-faire policy managing these companies. Dorsey promises that he and the county manager will be meeting about scooters and e-bikes the day after the October GCA meeting.

Regarding the Missing Middle Study, Vice-Chair Dorsey stated that the studies done by the staff after looking at other jurisdictions that adjusted zoning to allow for additional Missing Middle style housing, they estimate only twenty units may be built each year in Arlington. These studies have also found that smaller housing styles are often more affordable than single family homes. Dorsey was questioned regarding why there is not more focus on just increasing density in heavy transit areas and caps put on areas to not overwhelm single family neighborhoods. His response to these questions state that all these issues are still open for debate as the changes in zoning regulations have not yet been voted upon.

When asked about the timeline for additional considerations for questions such as tree canopy and other concerns, he stated “the board has greatly contributed to the confusion of all of this” but the planning commission and the zoning committee of the planning commission still needs to review any proposed changes to zoning ordinances and make recommendations to the county board. The county board will need to review the proposed changed and will continue to have public meetings before any proposal is decided upon. Dorsey additionally stated that he does not expect a board vote on zoning changes may not take place until January 2023.

Small Group Activities in Glencarlyn

Are you interested in being part of small groups of interest and activities in Glencarlyn? Interested in a book group? Or a card group - canasta? bridge? Dungeons and Dragons? Perhaps there is interest in crafting groups. We could have cooking lessons, language groups, wine tastings, trivia nights. Obviously the list is limitless. This can be done during the day or in the evenings. We can meet in homes, at the Library or in Carlin Hall. This question was posed to the community in early 2020 and there was a very positive response. Then covid hit and shut everything down before we could get groups off the ground. I am happy to report that the book club is going strong. We hope to try and get these groups going after the first of the year. Again, we have set up a sign-up genius with a list of possible groups/activities and the option to add more. Please check it out! See what people are interested in and sign up for what interests you. Go to the sign-up genius directly: or go to our website where you will find the link. This just might be another fun way for us to come together and grow as a community. We still have all the names of those that signed up before. However, it might be helpful to sign up again. If there is something you are interested in and it is not listed, please sign up for “Other” and add it in the comments.

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/409084BAEAC2DA2FE3-gcasmall1>

AutumnFest Kicks Off the Fall Season with Gardening Fun

by Wendy Mills & Elaine Mills, Extension Master Gardeners

Photos by Elaine Mills

Against the backdrop of clear blue skies and perfect fall weather, the Master Gardeners of Northern Virginia (MGNV) hosted their annual AutumnFest celebration on September 17 on the grounds of the Glencarlyn Branch Library. The event attracted the highest recorded turn-out to date: 433 adults and children participated in educational workshops and nature-related craft activities, purchased items from local vendors and enjoyed herb-inspired food and drinks from the garden.

Three educational programs were offered, including a native plant walk and demonstrations on gardening basics by Master Gardeners, as well as an introduction to invasive plants by Arlington County Natural Resources Specialist Jennifer Soles. Educational information was also provided by Arlington Regional Master Naturalists, representatives from the Ball-Sellers House, and Master Gardeners who shared alerts about the invasive Spotted Lanternfly.

Walking tour of the garden highlights native plants.

MG Intern Susan Grais teaches MGs Judy Funderburk and Anne Reed how to identify the Spotted Lanternfly.

that showcased more than a dozen herbs that can be grown in Northern Virginia, and took home their favorite recipes, including for Rosemary Marmalade Thumbprint Cookies.

Recipes for rosemary thumbprint cookies abound on the internet but this version is our favorite.

Children did craft projects focused on insects and, in the gazebo, guests, young and old, assembled fragrant sachets made from dried herbs and flowers, including lavender, rose buds, Sweet Annie and lemongrass, that were grown and dried by Master Gardener Judy Funderburk, co-founder of the Glencarlyn Library Garden.

On the patio, visitors were wowed by an array of free sweet and savory treats and drinks, including European, Indian and Middle Eastern delicacies,

Many visitors also took home free trees provided by the Small Trees Make Big Canopies program and books offered by Friends of the Arlington Library. Other participants included Hill House Native Plants, and vendors of pottery, artisanal chocolate, Ukrainian painted eggs (pysanky), and local honey.

The co-coordinators of the Glencarlyn Library Garden wish to thank the Glencarlyn Branch Library, the Glencarlyn Civic Association, and the more than 25 Master Gardener volunteers who made this event possible. We also wish to thank members of the community who came out in support of the garden. All proceeds from AutumnFest benefit MGNV and help to ensure that the garden remains a welcoming, beautiful and inspirational oasis and place of learning for members of the community and beyond.

MG intern Jonathan Morganstein demonstrates the correct way to plant a shrub.

Rosemary Marmalade Thumbprint Cookies

Ingredients:

- 1 cup butter, room temperature
- 2/3 cups sugar
- 1 tablespoon fresh rosemary, chopped
- 1/4 cup almonds, crushed
- 2 cups flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup orange marmalade

Directions:

Cream butter and sugar together in mixing bowl. Add rosemary, almonds, salt and flour and mix well. Refrigerate one hour until firm.

Form into 1 1/2-inch balls and arrange on an ungreased baking sheet. Press a hole into the center of each cookie with your thumb and fill with marmalade. Bake 18 minutes at 350°. Allow to cool completely before removing from baking sheets.

FRAUD ALERT: Police Share Information About Commonly Reported Scams

By Julie Lee

The Arlington County Police Department (ACPD) is sharing information on common scams and tips for how to spot, avoid and report them. Although many scams can appear convincing, remember to be cautious of unsolicited calls and emails, especially if the individual requests payment in the form of gift cards, cash or cash apps.

Report Scams: If you find that you were a target or victim of a scam, please file an online police report or call the Alternative Reporting Unit at 703-228-4300.

Individuals seeking additional information about fraud are encouraged to visit our financial crimes information webpage

Scam #1: The Virtual Kidnapping Ransom Scam

Scammers will call potential victims stating their family member is being held captive and threaten to continue holding them hostage unless they receive payment, typically through a cash app. The scammers will provide the victim with specific instructions to ensure the safe return of the family member and order the individual to stay on the line until money is received. This particular scam creates a sense of urgency and panic as the scammers also state they will harm the family member if the money is not sent immediately. ACPD encourages the public to hang up and call 911 immediately if faced with this scam.

Scam #2: The Grandparent Scam

Scammers will target elderly victims by calling and stating their grandchild has been arrested for driving under the influence or other serious crime. The nature of the situation makes the grandchild 'unavailable' to confirm their identity by phone and the scammer will ask the victim to send money for attorney fees or bail. In some cases, the scammers impersonate the grandchild while reporting to be in a crisis situation. This particular scam preys on the fears of grandparents to get them to act quickly. If you receive a call of this nature, hang up and call 911 immediately. ACPD advises a quick way to know if this call is a scam is if the caller asks the victim not to call the grandchild's parents to confirm they have been arrested.

Scam #3: The Jury Duty Scam

Scammers will pose as law enforcement and contact victims accusing them of failing to appear for jury duty and stating a warrant for their arrest will be issued unless a fine is paid. Payment is often requested in the form of gift cards and the scammer will ask the victim to provide the gift card numbers over the phone. Scammers may also instruct the victim to send the gift cards to a police department as an added appearance of legitimacy. As a reminder, ACPD and the Sheriff's Office will never call to solicit funds or collect fines over the phone. Additionally, juror summonses are sent through the mail and communication through other mediums should be considered suspicious.

Scam #4: Spoofing

Spoofing is when a caller deliberately falsifies the information transmitted to your caller ID display to disguise their identity. Scammers often use neighbor spoofing so it appears an incoming call is coming from a local number, or spoof a number from a company or a government agency that you may already know and trust. You may not be able to tell right away if an incoming call is spoofed. If you get a call from someone who says they represent a company or a government agency, hang up and call the phone number on your account statement or on the company's or government agency's website to verify the authenticity of the call.

Fraud Crime Prevention Tips

Reduce the risk of becoming a victim of a scam by following these crime prevention tips:

- Always be suspicious of unsolicited phone calls or emails.
- Be cautious of mimicked telephone numbers and e-mail addresses.
- Never use a phone number provided to you from the caller to verify their credibility.
- Never give money or personal information to someone with whom you don't have ties and did not initiate contact with.
- Trust your instincts: if an unknown caller makes you uncomfortable or says things that don't sound right, hang up.

Take your time. If the caller puts you in fear, requests you to act quickly or states there is an emergency, it's likely a scam. Scammers create a sense of urgency to get you act impulsively and without thinking.

Remain fiscally secure by following these practices:

- Track and review your bank and credit card statements for irregular activity.
- Avoid unusual payment methods. No government agency or legitimate business will instruct you to resolve your debt using a payment method such as Bitcoin, money wires, cash app, mailed cash or gift cards where the identification numbers are provided over the phone.

Do not respond to e-mails or text messages requesting you to "confirm," "update," or "provide" account information.

LOVE IT!

Experts are starting to make their 2023 home price forecasts and most agree homes will continue to gain value, just at a slower pace. Over the past few years, home prices have risen at an unsustainable rate, leaving many to wonder how long it would last. Historically, home prices have appreciated at a rate near 4%. For 2023, the average of six major forecasters noted below is 2.5%. While one, Zelman & Associates, is calling for depreciation, the other five are calling for appreciation. The graph below outlines each expert forecast to show where they project home prices are going next year. Diminished home affordability due to rising mortgage rates is also a factor.
